1. According to our Source in Rome, via a Ukrainian priest came the following information from JANOWSKI, fnu ( an official of Polish Embassy in Rome recently recalled to Warsaw) :

As a condition for Pope's visit to Poland, the Polish government insists on a / a formal confirmation of present Polish church provinces in former German lands as de jure Polish dioceses;

b/ nomination of at least two other Polish cardinals;

c/ liquidation of the title of Primus of Cardinal Wyszynski;

d/ liquidation of old Polish Embassy at the Vatican (Ambassador Pap).

On his part the Polish government is ready to allow tuition of religion in all Polish schools.

The invitation to the Pope should be conveyed by OCHAB who would visit Italy, have an audience with the Pope and on that occasion invite Paul VI officially to visit Poland. The visit of Saragat to Poland is to start the preparation.

2. During <sup>the</sup> past negotiations between Moscow and the Vatican, still when John XXIII was alive, Moscow wanted an eventual Vatican representation to be established in Kiev and not in Moscow. Some Vatican circles explained it as an obvious attempt of the Kremlin to create the impression that not the Soviet Union but <sup>only</sup> one of its republics were maintaining diplomatic relations with the Vatican.

3. During the meeting with CHUICHUK V. at Paris, France O.R. gave him Dvi Ukrainiski Entsyklopedii and Dokumenty Ukrainskoho Komunizmu. CHUICHUK told O.R. that he had read Panorama by Koshleivets and found it very interesting. He expressed the wish to read "some more of the same kind".

4. The address of KOLASKA Ivan : 29, Concord Ave, Toronto 4, Ont. Canada. KOLASKA told our Source in Winnipeg, Man. that in KOSOV, West Ukraine, there ~~had~~ burned down a factory of Ukrainian folkloric and other artistic articles, mainly rugs and carvings. The fire was not talked about publicly.
